We like to think of this wine as a "converter". It converts those who tend to shy away from California Vino because of the reputation for being too bitter and viscous. Our Viognier is always fresh and bright with great acidity to insure the wine is not cloying. It displays all the tropical fruits and flowers associated with the variety for a wonderful experience. We do stir the wine on it's lees in barrel once a month or so to make sure it also has that velvet texture that is also a hallmark of the variety. This vintage was no exception. On the nose you will first get the flinty notes of reduction followed by pineapple, kiwi and white, freshly cut, flowers. The palate is refined and pure with seemingly effortless weight. One of our best Viogniers to date."
